DISTRICT COURT.

The fall session of the First Judicial District Court for Santa Fe County was called to order yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the court room at the county court house, Associate Justice John R. McFie presiding. Other officials present were District Clerk A. M. Bergere, District Attorney E. C. Abbott and Under Sheriff Jose L. Lopez.

The case of the Territory vs. John O'Brien, assisting a prisoner to escape from the Territorial penitentiary was called. Defendant's attorney, T. B. Catron, entered objections to several allegations in the indictment, said objections being held valid by the court. The indictment was accordingly quashed. O'Brien was not released, however, but will be held pending further action.

The case of the Territory vs. Luz de Lopez, for larceny, was called and the defendant sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

In the case of the Territory vs. Troy Trimble, for assault on the porter of a Santa Fe train near Cerrillos, the defendant plead guilty and was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail.

MARVELOUS FEATS

BY MISS ROSE IVY.
Among the marvelous feats which will be accomplished by Miss Rose Ivy at the Opera House in this city Friday and Saturday nights will be the following: She places the tips of her fingers against a window or wall and allows one, two, three, four or more men to try to push her up against the wall or window. To show that it is not muscular strength which prevents them from so doing, others are allowed to place their hands between Miss Ivy's fingers and the wall or window, no pressure whatever being felt on the interposed hands. Many other feats equally as wonderful are given.
